It was a brutal crash that claimed the lives of four young men over the week-end on the Phoenix Highway. Family and friends are battling to come to terms with their sudden and unexpected death.

On that fateful Saturday night at approximately 20H48, the brothers and their two friends where travelling along the Phoenix Highway, in a gold coloured Toyota Corolla, when the driver allegedly lost control of the vehicle and collided into a concrete barrier. Brothers, Threshan Karamchand (23), Nikhiel Karamchand (17), and their friends, Nathaniel Peters (17) and Akash Muganlall (23) died at the scene. Threshan and Nikhiel
